Historical/Biographical Notes

English and Classical High School, also known as Worcester High School, opened in 1845. Because of population growth in Worcester during the last half of the 19th century, a second high school was built, opening in 1892. The old school became Classical High School, and the new one was named English High School.

Scope and Content

The collection comprises 53 cabinet photographs of graduating high school seniors from English and Classical High School, Worcester, Mass., Class of 1887. Eight photographs are not identified but are probably also Class of 1887 graduates. All photographs were made by Worcester photographers. All photographs are albumen prints.
