Historical/Biographical Notes

Warren C. Lane Jr. was a prominent lawyer in Worcester during the second half of the 20th century. He was born in Providence, Rhode Island, on August 9, 1923 to Warren C. Lane Sr. and Pauline Lane. He received his education through the Leicester public schools, Phillips Exeter Academy, Harvard College, and Harvard Law School. After graduating from Harvard College, Lane joined the United States Naval Reserve in 1944, and served in the Pacific between February 1945 and April 1946 as a Lieutenant J.G. aboard the LST 1046. Between 1949 and 1951, Lane was associated with the law firm of Hartwell & Driscoll. In 1951, Lane married Cynthia Rugg, with whom he had three children. Since 1951, he has been associated with the law firm of Bowditch, Gowetz, & Lane. Between 1953 and 1955, Lane served as Assistant District Attorney for Worcester County. Lane is one of the founders of the International Center of Worcester, which was established in 1963. Lane has been very involved in the Worcester community, serving as a trustee for institutions such as Worcester Academy, Shepherd Knapp School, and the Consumer Savings Bank. He has also served as director of numerous business corporations, the American Red Cross, the Legal Aid Society of Worcester, and the Civic Music Association. Lane currently resides in Worcester.

Scope and Content

This collection contains personal letters to and from Warren (“Bud”) Lane Jr. between 1930 and 1961. Many of these letters contain newspaper clippings or photographs of Lane or his family and friends. The collection also contains a number of naval newspapers entitled The Dope (May 1945-April 1946) that was created by the crew aboard the LST 1046 in the Pacific, and to which Lane served as the technical advisor.
