Historical/Biographical Notes

Mr. John Curtis was a retired trust officer at the Worcester County National Bank and was a longtime civic leader. The son of Philip N. and Marjorie (Whitin) Curtis, he was born and raised in Worcester and spent most of his life there. Mr. Curtis graduated from Bancroft School in 1928 and attended Hotchkiss School in Connecticut as well as Harvard Business School in Cambridge and Yale University. He was also a Navy Veteran of World War II, serving as a lieutenant in the Aleutian Islands at Adak.

Mr. Curtis was a member of many clubs and societies throughout Worcester. He served as the president of the Worcester Historical Society, Bancroft School Alumni Association, and Visiting Nurse Association. He was also a member, moderator, and senior deacon at United Congregational Church. Mr. Curtis was also a member of the Worcester Fire Society, the American Antiquarian Society, and a former board member of the Worcester Foothills Theatre. Mr. Curtis passed away at the age of 82.

Scope and Content

The collection contains different speeches written by Mr. John Curtis as well as meeting minutes and dinner invitations to the Worcester Fire Society of which he was a member. Some photographs of the entire society at the time are also present. There are miscellaneous letters to family and friends written by Mr. John Curtis as well as letters written to him. Lastly, there are several genealogical notes and items pertaining to the Estate of Marjorie Curtis including tax returns and wills.
