Historical/Biographical Notes

This collection was established in 1993 by the Gay and Lesbian Community Coalition of Central Massachusetts in cooperation with the Worcester Historical Museum. The archive is the property of the Worcester Historical Museum. Additions to this archive in the form of a donation are welcome from individuals and groups.

The collection is comprised of-but not limited to-such items as: banners, buttons, pictures, pins, posters, periodicals, public documents, programs, oral histories, newspaper clippings, souvenir books, and t-shirts. All items presented as additions to the archive are subject to review by the Museum, the GLCCCM archive committee, or their successors. Portions of this archive may be used for displays or exhibits assembled by GLCCCM or the Worcester Historical Museum.

The goal of the archive is to document, for both our contemporaries and future generations, that lesbians and gay men as a whole and as individuals are an integral part of Central Massachusetts.
