Historical/Biographical Notes

Plans to re-build Worcester Vocational High School began in 1997. The school was to be built in Green Hill Park. The plans to build the high school in Green Hill Park were met with controversy because of the fear of disrupting the esthetical value of the park as well as the land and progress made by other environmental projects done in the park (i.e. the digging of a landfill in the 1970's).

Scope and Content

Collection contains the records the building of Worcester Vocational High School in Green Hill Park.
