Historical Information

George K. Gregory was a pianist and singer at numerous local establishments from the 1960s through the 1990s. He performed, both solo and as an accompanist for singers, at the Bancroft Hotel, Worcester Country Club, the Eden Restaurant, and for 20 years the El Morocco. He was born in Boston around 1918, and was a graduate of North High School in Worcester. He is listed in Worcester City Directories from 1958 as a musician, living at 138 Belmont Street. He died while working in January, 1999, at the age of 81.

Scope and Content

The collection consists of two kodacolor prints of George K. Gregory, reproduced about 1999 from earlier prints taken around 1970. The two photographs appear to be made from the same negative.

Series Description

The collection consists of two nearly identical photographs, and is not arranged into series.
