Historical/Biographical Notes

Francis A. Harrington, one of the owners of Harrington & Bros., a Worcester livery stable, was Mayor of Worcester 1889-1891. He also served on the Board of Aldermen in the 1880s. The family residence during the 1880s-1890s was on Harrington Court (now Harrington Way) in the Bloomingdale section of Worcester. Two children, Frank and May, attended Worcester Public Schools during the 1880s.

Scope and Content

The collection consists of three report cards issued by Worcester Schools; two issued by Worcester Grammar Schools to May Harrington, grades 4 and 7, in 1887 and 1889; and one issued by Worcester Primary Schools to Frank Harrington, 1884. The report cards are signed by F.A. Harrington or Mrs. F.A. Harrington.

The report cards were found buried on property on Ernest Avenue by the donor, a short distance from the Harrington residence on Harrington Court.

Series Description
