Historical/Biographical Notes

Miles Morgan, one of the founders of Springfield, MA came to this country in 1636 from Wales. He was born in 1615. He married first Prudence Gilbert and second Eliza Bliss. For complete genealogy of early family, please see box 1 of collection.

Charles Hill Morgan was born January 8, 1831 in Rochester, NY son of Hiram and Clarissa (Rich) Morgan. He started working at the age of 12 and at 15 became an apprentice to his uncle J.B. Parker of Clinton, MA. He took it upon himself to learn mechanical drawing and at the age of 21, he was put in charge of the Clinton Mills Dye-House. In 1860, he joined his brother, (Francis Henry Morgan) in Philadelphia in the manufacturing of paper bags. He came to Worcester in 1864 when Ichabod Washburn was in need of a superintendent for his wire works finally resigning in 1887. In 1881, he founded Morgan Spring Company. He married first, Harries Plympton (1831 – 1862) of Shrewsbury and they had one son, Charles Henry Morgan. He married second, Rebecca A. Beagary. Their children were Harriet W. (Mitchell), Charlotte N. (McFadden), Paul B. Morgan and Ralph L. Morgan. Charles Hill Morgan died in 1911.

Paul Beagary Morgan was born in Worcester, May 7, 1869 son of Charles Hill and Rebecca Ann (Beagary) Morgan. He graduated from Worcester Academy in 1887 and WPI in 1890. He succeeded his father as President of Morgan Construction Company and was President of Heald Machine Company. He married, June 15, 1893 Lessie Louise Maynard daughter of William and Mary (Adams) Maynard of Worcester. Their children were Philip Maynard (b. April 13, 1896), Charles Hill (b. September 19, 1902), Paul Beagary Jr. (b. June 11, 1904), Vincent (b. February 2, 1906) and Elizabeth (b. July 2, 1909). Paul B. Morgan died in November, 1952.

Philip Maynard Morgan was born in Worcester April 13, 1869 the son of Paul B. and Lessie L. (Maynard) Morgan. He graduated from Bancroft School and then from Worcester Academy in 1914. He then entered Harvard University but left in July 1917 to join the army during WWI. He was a member of the First Field Artillery, Massachusetts National Guard. He was severely burned during a mustard gas attack on July 16, 1918 and remained hospitalized until March 1919. After he release, he completed his courses and graduated from Harvard. He was named assistant purchasing agent at Morgan Construction in 1920. After several years in and out of Morgan he became treasurer from 1927 to 1940 and 1942 – 1945. He married Marjorie B. (Shepard) Morgan and had two sons, Paul S. Morgan and Peter S. Morgan. Philip M Morgan died November 19, 1965.

Paul Shepard Morgan was born in 1923. He was a graduate of Bancroft School in Worcester and the Governor's Academy, South Byfield, MA and Harvard University. He received his honorary degree of Doctor of Engineering from WPI in 1995. Upon graduating from Harvard in 1944, he served as an officer with the U.S. Navy in the Pacific. He joined Morgan Construction in 1947. He was twice elected to Worcester City Council (1953 – 1957) and its Charter Commission in 1983. He was married to Anne (Nancy) Murray Morgan and their children Philip R., Daniel M., Margaret M. Grasselli and Anne C. Morgan.

Peter Shepard Morgan was born in 1924. Peter attended Bancroft School in Worcester and spent most of his summers on his grandfather's farm in Hubbardston, MA. He attended Governor Dummer Academy in Byfield, MA. He served in the Army during World War II. He began working at American Steel and Wire and then spent the next 40 years at Morgan Construction Company. He then spent ten years as a motor coach operator with Fox Bus Lines. He marries Jerry Morgan on June 7, 1947. Their children are Peter, Merrill (Merry) Hill, Gail, Carol and Jane. Peter died on June 16, 2016.
