Historical/Biographical Notes

The Rockwood Sprinkler Company was formed in Worcester in 1906, manufacturing sprinkler systems. George I Rockwood served as president and treasurer, John P. Ashley as vice president, and Halford W. Park as secretary. The company registered several patents for fire extinguishing tools and methods. It opened offices and factories throughout the country, and also shipped products to Europe and Asia.

Scope and Content

The collection contains company newsletters from 1943 through 1963, as well as photographs of machinery and the company's products and employees.
