Historical/Biographical Notes

Robert T. Sullivan was a native of Worcester, a graduate of South Hadley High School. He served with the U. S. Air Force during World War II as an engineer and turret gunner on a B-24. Following the war, he received a bachelor's degree in English and history from Syracuse university. He was employed as a manufacturer's representative in power transmissions and did free-lance cartooning until he joined the Worcester Telegram in 1971 as editorial cartoonist. Many of his cartoons received awards from United Press International and other organizations. Sullivan died in 1988 at the age of 64.
