Historical/Biographical Notes

Worcester Woman's Club was founded on December 9, 1880. Prior to their founding, women's clubs were mushrooming all over the east ever since 12 years before when women on the press in New York were barred from the 1868 press banquet honoring Charles Dickens at Delmonico's Piqued. The women formed a club of their own, the Sorosis, the first secular woman's club in America.

In Worcester, the club movement sprouted as a result of a two-day observance in October, 1880, of the 30th anniversary of the First National Woman's Rights Convention held in Worcester in 1850. After the celebration, three women began to think in terms of a Woman's Club; Mrs. Oliver F. Harris (Mary Cross), wife of a dentist, Mrs. Avery Howland and her sister, Sarah A. Henshaw. On December 9th, 22 women organized the Worcester Woman's Club at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. William A. Knight.
