Historical/Biographical Notes

The Worcester chapter of the Y.M.C.A. was founded in 1852 by prominent Worcester gentlemen; Philip Moen, C.M. Miles, George Estabrook, Nelson Wheeler, Thomas Tucker, Joseph Walker, C.F. Washburn, S.A. Daniels and Jonas White. This association soon merged and became the Young Men's Library Association (see other collection). The association was reorganized in 1864 when a new thought of work among the laity arose among young men. It was re-instituted at a meeting on June 14, 1864 at the Lincoln House. It has flourished ever since.
